

Summer in China

August 2014 - Date to be confirmed

“Summer in China” is a 10 day adventure in China, based in two cities, Beijing and Harbin. London South Bank University students and staff are offered an exclusive scholarship which covers the cost of accommodation, guided tours and cultural workshops in China. All you need to pay for is your international flight and China tourist visa.

Entry requirements: Students will need to complete and pass HSK level 1 offered by the Confucius Institute at London South Bank University, a course designed to teach and prepare students in basic Mandarin. Once students have completed this course at the University they are automatically eligible to apply for the “Summer in China” study trip, subject to a successful visa application.

Ref no	Start date	Finish date	Study days	Time	Study hours	Exam date ref:37	3 Feb	24 March	Mon and Wed	17.30-19.30	30	12 April ref:39	4 Feb	25 March	Tue and Thur	17.30-19.30	30	12 April
Ref:40	3 Feb	11 April	Mon, Wed & Fri	12.00-13.00	30	12 April
ref:41	1 Feb	5th April	Sat	10.00-13.00	30	12 April

Cost: HSK Level 1 (LSBU student) £90

Summer in China

Visa expenses

£100 approx

Flight

£750 approx

Location: All language courses will be run at London South Bank University, Further details of classes will be sent on registration.

Registration: Please send an email to ci4tcm@lsbu.ac.uk to book a place, please include your forename, surname, telephone number, current address and email address on which all correspondence should be sent to. Please specify which course you wish to join. If you have any queries please don't hesitate to contact us on 0207 815 7269/7266 or pop in and see us in Caxton House, 3rd Floor.

Level: Confucius Institute uses the HSK teaching scheme. HSK is the Chinese Proficiency Test, which has 6 levels. HSK level 1 & 2 focuses on pinyin and you don't start with Chinese characters until level 3. Students have the option of sitting the HSK exam.

Exam: Exam dates are offered every month.

www.ci4tcm.com

Summer in China

Open the doors to learning about China
Go to China!